POLICE DRAGNET FOR ANARCHISTS.

Emma Goldman Is Most Sought For, and an Effort Will Be Made to Connect Her With Conspiracy to Assassinate the President—Wholesale Arrests May Be Made Within a Few Hours.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—From two sources, each of which is unimpeachable, it is learned to-night that the police of the United States are nearly ready to draw a dragnet and capture a host of anarchists, all of whom are believed to be concerned in the plot to murder President McKinley and other representatives of the Government.

Emma Goldman is believed to be a leader in the conspiracy, as was told in The Republic of this morning. She was here in Buffalo the day before President McKinley arrived. The police of this city to-day questioned a relative of hers, from whom much information of value was obtained.

The Goldman woman's arrest, it is said, will occur within a few hours, if, indeed, it has not already been effected.

Evidence is not lacking that the plot was, at least, partially concocted in Buffalo. Walter Novak, a Pole, and a friend of Leon Czolgosz, was placed under arrest this morning and an attempt was made to keep his arrest a secret. No charge has been made against him as yet, but he will be called upon to tell what he knows of the would-be assassin of President McKinley, and also to explain some mysterious dealings of his own.

Mysterious Meeting of Poles.
Three men, all of them Poles, came together in this city under mysterious and peculiar circumstances. Although they had never met before, each asked for the other two. Bill a fourth Pole, a man known to be an anarchist, and who knew Czolgosz in Cleveland, was in Buffalo two days before President McKinley was shot. While under the influence of liquor in a Polish saloon he made the boast that President McKinley would never leave Buffalo alive.

A young woman—not Emma Goldman, but a member of the Polish colony, a woman of much learning and considerable culture—is believed to be at least indirectly connected with this mysterious affair. Information now in the possession of the agents of the United States secret service has led to the belief that Leon Czolgosz was chosen by her as the one to assassinate President McKinley. It is also believed that his life would have been forfeited had he failed to perform the deed allotted to him.

Finally The Republic is able to announce that Mrs. Czolgosz, mother of the man who attempted to assassinate President McKinley, was in Buffalo to-day. She made no attempt to see her son. In some mysterious manner, however, he learned of her presence here, and when District Attorney Denney asked him if he wanted a lawyer Czolgosz said: "No, I want no lawyer now. When the time comes I will be supplied with counsel, and there will be plenty of money for my defense."

BOUNDED UP ANARCHISTS.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—To force them to tell where Emma Goldman is, Pittsburg and Allegheny police began rounding up anarchists to-day. The first one to be brought in was Carl Noid, who served five years for complicity in the plot to assassinate H. C. Frick. Under the name of C. H. Norman, he was found working in the East Pittsburg shops of the Westinghouse Company. Asked about Emma Goldman, he said:

"The last time I saw her was Saturday night a week ago. She told me that she was going to St. Louis the following night (Sunday), and I have never since then seen her. I was in St. Louis since I left there to come here. I have been working here ever since I came to Pittsburg."

The time books of the company corroborate what Noid said.

After he had been locked up, detectives went to No. 70 Wylie avenue, where they arrested Henry Gordon, keeper of a small store. Gordon has acted as Emma Goldman's Pittsburg agent or manager, and on her visits here she stayed at his home. The brothers were searched for evidence to connect him with the attempted assassination of President McKinley. Numerous letters written in German were found. The police think they may throw some light on the reported general anarchistic movement for the assassination of the heads of other Governments.

Superintendent of Detectives O'Mara "arrested" both anarchists this evening. He thought he could learn whether either knew anything of the attempt to assassinate

President McKinley. He would not tell what he learned if anything. He notified the Buffalo police of the arrest of the two men. Orders for the arrest of Emma Goldman were issued. All the detectives learned is that she left here a week ago for Cleveland, from which place she expected to go to St. Louis.

PLANNED TO KILL MCKINLEY.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Lockport, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Good authorities here are responsible for the statement that Senator Ellsworth has at last given out the facts concerning the previous plot against the life of the President. The following is the story as obtained by The Republic correspondent:

The plot was matured in Paterson, N. J., three months ago, and Emma Goldman, Louis Bernstein and other prominent anarchists are said to have been concerned in it. Michael Anutai, a young tailor residing in New York, was delegated to do the deed.

He immediately left for San Francisco, where he expected to meet President McKinley, who was then on his Western tour. Arrived there, three days ahead of him, he put up at a Bohemian boarding-house. He made the acquaintance of a young man there who professed to believe in the same doctrine and who was accepted by Anutai as a "brother." In an inadvertent moment he told this "brother" of his mission in San Francisco and was promptly arrested. The "brother" proved to be a Secret Service detective.

Owing to the condition of Mrs. McKinley at that time the matter was hushed up, the culprit being charged with vagrancy. He was sent to the San Francisco Workhouse to serve out a sentence of nine months.

WATCHING FOR GOLDMAN WOMAN.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Washington, Sept. 9.—Anarchists will not be tolerated within the bounds of the District of Columbia. Major Sylvester has instructed the members of the detective force to arrest on sight any person of known anarchistic proclivities. Word was received last night that Emma Goldman would probably come to this city, and immediate extraordinary precautions were taken to apprehend her.

There was unusual activity at police headquarters for a time and additional detectives were placed at the depots to scrutinize the passengers on all incoming trains. A telephone message received from the Philadelphia authorities stated that they had been asked by Police Superintendent Bull of Buffalo to arrest Emma Goldman. The Philadelphia police stated that they had information that the young woman was on her way to Washington, and would probably reach here during the night. A similar message was received shortly afterwards from Baltimore.

The vigilance of the local police was without result. Nothing further has been heard from the out-of-town authorities, and it is not thought likely that the Goldman woman will come to Washington now at all, although the diligence of the police in looking out for her and others of her class will not be relaxed.

In view of the statement that the Goldman woman is wanted in Buffalo, it is considered significant that no mention was made of the fact this morning in a telegram which Major Sylvester received from Superintendent Bull.

MOTHER DEFENDS HER DAUGHTER.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Emma Goldman, for whom the police of all the cities are searching, was born in Korovka, Russia, thirty-two years ago. She worked in a tannery and shoe factory here for several years, and later had a corset shop of her own.

Of her daughter Mrs. Goldman said to-night: "Emma is a woman of superior intelligence. She knows that a President killed to-day could be replaced to-morrow and that nothing would be gained. She has never taught anarchism, murder, bloodshed nor incendiarism. She knows that these things cannot but fall of their object. Her whole life has been devoted to raising up the working man. When any great calamity has befallen a monarch or a ruler she has invariably expressed great regret or sorrow over the event. Emma was always an obedient child. She was affectionate, but inclined to brood over wrongs to her race. No one regrets more than my daughter the injury of President McKinley."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVATE PHYSICIAN CONFIDENT OF HIS RAPID RECOVERY.

Milburn House, Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Doctor P. M. Rixey, one of the President's attendant physicians, and also the private physician of the President and Mrs. McKinley, said to-night regarding the distinguished patient:

"I am not a specialist in abdominal surgery, but, from a general knowledge of gunshot wounds, I can say that the only possibility of complication was by blood poisoning or peritonitis, and that I consider both now a very remote probability."

"Peritonitis might set in as a result of the two apertures in the stomach, but up to this time—a time beyond the usual standard record—not the slightest symptom is manifest."

"There is not the slightest evidence of blood poisoning."

"As to the bullet not yet extracted, I do not believe we need worry about that. The presumption is that it is lodged somewhere in the muscles of the back. Pursuing natural course, it would now be encased and cut off from possible harm. There will be no attempt to extract the bullet at present. Neither will there be any operation for its removal at present."

"I see no reason why the President will not recover rapidly."

DR. FRANK F. FRY THINKS CZOLGOSZ IS A PARANOIAC.

Says Photographs of President McKinley's Assassin Show No Signs of Degeneracy.

FACE INDICATES INTELLIGENCE.

Doctor Frank F. Fry of No. 313 Pine street, one of the best-known neurologists in the city, declared yesterday, upon seeing a photograph of Leon Czolgosz, that there were no striking marks of degeneracy in his face, and that he was certain the anarchist would prove a paranoiac upon further examination.

"There is nothing degenerate about his head except his ears and a slight narrowness of the forehead," said the doctor, "although the physiognomic description gives two striking marks of degeneracy. These are the excessive addition to tobacco and the highly emotional disposition. This latter characteristic, if true, is the strongest mark of a degenerate, as hysteria is a striking sign of degeneracy in many cases. But Czolgosz's face indicates average intelligence, at least, and were it not for his droop at the lobe, there is nothing to indicate degeneracy."

"His forehead is high and narrow and has a touch of femininity about it. Effeminacy, in a male, is often a sign of degeneracy, but the effeminate tendency is comparatively slight in Czolgosz. There is no indication of anything out of the normal in his nose, while his chin in the photo you show me is not strikingly weak."

"There are many cases of degeneracy where there is absolutely nothing in the features to indicate it, just as there are many cases where striking signs of degeneracy are not upheld by the character of disposition of the bearer. It may be that Czolgosz will be found a degenerate from an anatomical standpoint, although there is not much in his features to indicate this.

"More detailed descriptions are necessary before a positive judgment could be passed in such a case, particularly as the shading in this photo gives two ideas of his profile. In the profile photo the cheek appears hollow, while in the front view the cheek appears heavy and thick."

"His mouth is normal and the lips are not overly thick or expressive. This man may prove on examination to be a degenerate of the worst type, but from an examination of this photograph I would say that he is a paranoiac. His expression conforms to this idea much more than his personal appearance conforms to the signs of degeneracy. I think he will be found to be a paranoiac."

ANARCHIST WHO PREDICTED THE DEED ARRESTED; SAYS EMPEROR WILLIAM WILL BE NEXT.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Silver City, N. M., Sept. 9.—Antonio Maggio, the outspoken anarchist, who frequently predicted that President McKinley would be assassinated before October 1, is under arrest at Santa Rita, a mining camp near Silver City.

Maggio has been watched closely for several days by the officers, and was making preparations to leave town when the order for his arrest came. This afternoon from United States Marshal Forker of Santa Fe. When he heard of the attempt upon the life of the President he said the assassin would be sorry for making a botch of his work, and that the order would take care of him for failing to kill his victim.

Maggio says Emperor William will be the next victim of an anarchist edict.

The prisoner is a musician and has earned good wages playing in saloons since he was left here last February by the Andrews Opera Company.

BUFFALO TRIP ABANDONED.

Cook County Democracy Thinks Jaunt Would Be Indelicate.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The Cook County Democracy has voted to abandon its trip to the Pan-American Exposition, giving as a reason that it would be indelicate for a political club to march and enjoy itself in the streets of Buffalo at a time when the President of the United States was in distress near by.

The club also adopted resolutions "expressing sincere regret and sorrow at the attempted assassination of President McKinley and hope that our esteemed President will be restored to full and perfect health."

INDIANS LIKE MCKINLEY.

Sympathize With the President and Hope for His Recovery.

Ardmore, I. T., Sept. 9.—The members of the Indian Legislature expressed great sorrow for the assault on President McKinley this morning.

When news was received to-day indicating that he would probably recover there was much rejoicing among the Indians, who say they want to see the Great Father spared. The President is very popular among the Indian tribes, and he is regarded by them as being a loyal friend.

John Morgan Camp, United Confederate Veterans, adopted resolutions of sorrow to-day.

WOULD PUT MR. WELLINGTON OUT.

His Heartless Comment on the Attempt to Assassinate the President Calls Forth a Stinging Editorial in Atlanta Journal, Backed by Twenty-Three Leading Southern Papers, Who Favor the Expulsion of the Senator From Maryland.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 9.—In the Atlanta Journal this evening appeared a leading editorial calling for the expulsion from the Senate of Senator Wellington of Maryland.

In the same issue were telegrams from twenty-three leading Southern papers endorsing that proposition. The editorial is:

"It is the misfortune of Maryland that she has George L. Wellington for one of her United States Senators. On the evening when President McKinley was shot down and while it was supposed that his death was near at hand, Wellington said to a newspaper reporter: 'McKinley and I are enemies. I have nothing good to say about him and under the circumstances do not care to say anything bad. I am indifferent to the whole matter.'"

"George L. Wellington has placed himself in the category and company of the ruffians who stood about the bulletin boards in several cities last Friday evening and rejoiced over a deed that shocked the moral sense of civilized mankind. He is less excusable than these comparatively insignificant blackguards, every one of whom was knocked down or kicked by those who heard his fiendish chuckle. He has branded himself as the apostle of anarchy and assassination."

"While the nation was plunged into grief and deep apprehension over the attempt to slay the President, over an assault upon our system of government itself, this Senator of the United States had the hardihood to proclaim: 'I am indifferent to the whole matter,' because 'McKinley and I are enemies.'"

A DISGRACE TO SENATE—PUT HIM OUT.

"It is hard to comprehend how one who has had Wellington's opportunities and advantages could still possess a soul so small and cherish spite so unspokeably contemptible."

HANNA'S TERRIBLE DREAM.

In Phantasy He Heard the President's Temperature Was 440.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Senator M. A. Hanna wore a look of supreme contentment to-day when he left the house where the President is lying bravely battling with death. He felt absolutely certain that the President's recovery is only a matter of a few weeks, and he dictated this statement to The Republic correspondent:

"You may say for the information of the American people that all the news we have is good news. We know that the greatest danger is past. We hope that in a few hours the President's physicians will announce that his case is beyond the possibility of a relapse."

"Just say that for me, and I think it will give more satisfaction than if I talked a column."

"You have no fears that there may be a change for the worse?" I asked.

"That reminds me of a dream I had last night. You know, dreams go by contraries. Well, sir, in this dream I was up at the Milburn house waiting to hear how the President was getting along, and everybody was feeling very good. We thought the danger was all past. I was sitting there talking with General Brooke and Mr. Cortelyou, and we were felicitating ourselves on how well the physicians had been carrying the case."

"Suddenly, in my dream, Doctor McBurney entered the room through the door leading from the sickroom with a look of the utmost horror and distress on his face. I rushed up to him and, putting a hand on either shoulder, said:

"What is it, doctor, what is it? Let us know the worst."

"Doctor McBurney replied: 'My dear Senator, it is absolutely the worst that could happen. The President has had a tremendous change for the worse. His temperature is now 440 degrees.'"

"I fell back in my chair in utter collapse, and then I awoke. But, do you know, I couldn't rest easy until I saw the early bulletins this morning."

Senator Hanna expects to leave Buffalo to-morrow morning for Cleveland to spend the day with the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, whose annual encampment is now being held there. The President was to have attended this encampment and the shooting has sadly disarranged the veterans' plans.

ble that his views on the attempted assassination of a President and all that it signified could be controlled by personal enmity against the man who had been struck down.

"A private citizen who should speak in such a way of another private citizen who had been dangerously and possibly fatally wounded by an unprovoked assailant would merit and receive the condemnation of all who heard his cruel remarks. How then can we characterize such conduct on the part of a United States Senator toward the President of the United States, who is so beloved for his nobility of nature and the purity of his life?"

"Is the man who could utter the words which Wellington does not deny a fit person to sit in the highest council of the nation? Is he worthy to be trusted with affairs that involve the honor and welfare of the country?"

"We think not."

"What does the United States Senate think about it?"

"The Senate is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members. Moral disqualification should be as fatal as statutory provisions to a claim or a title to a seat in the Senate."

"No gentleman in the Senate can now respect Wellington; no patriot there or elsewhere can trust him. No man with a right mind and an honest heart can fail to reprobate his meanness."

"The Senate should purge itself of Wellington. We hope to see a resolution for his expulsion offered on the first day of the Senate's very next session, ordinary or extraordinary, and we trust that it will receive the vote of every Senator who is qualified to pass upon it."

"George L. Wellington is a reproach to the State of Maryland and a disgrace to the United States Senate. Put him out."

HANNA VERY CONFIDENT.

Tells the Public That Every Hour Now Is a Victory.

Milburn House, Buffalo, Sept. 9.—Secretary Hitchcock and Senator Hanna emerged from the Milburn house shortly after noon. The Senator appeared to be very jubilant. He stopped a moment before entering his automobile to express his great satisfaction at the President's condition.

"Every bulletin is an improvement," said he, "and the last is the best of all. Of course, last night was an anxious one, but the President passed in safety without a change for the worse. The crucial period will probably extend through another day, possibly longer, but every hour now is a victory."

"Is the President's mind clear?"

"Clear as a bell," replied the Senator promptly.

"Does he talk?"

"As much as he is allowed to," he answered, smiling. "Mrs. McKinley was with the President for some little time this morning," he added. "She is doing splendidly."

Then, with another admonition to the photographers to turn their batteries away, he and Secretary Hitchcock climbed into the auto and rode away to the Buffalo Club.

HAVE NO NATIONALITY.

Milan Paper's Pointed Comment on Attempted Assassination.

Milan, Sept. 9.—Commenting on the attempted assassination of President McKinley, La Perseveranza says:

"Thanks be to God the would-be assassin is not an Italian. Caserio, Lucchini and Bresci have given an abominable reputation to our name abroad and brought down upon our countrymen in foreign lands not a little evil. Such wretches, however, have no nationality, just as they have no country, no conscience, no morality."

UNBALANCED BY GRIEF.

Young Man Killed Himself on Account of Buffalo Tragedy.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 9.—John Thompson, aged 25 years, and son of wealthy parents, committed suicide to-day by shooting. He had talked of nothing but the President's speedy recovery. He said the time had arrived to protect Presidents from close contact with large crowds. It was not a question of courage. All Presidents were courageous, but their duty was to be protected. The position was so exalted and important, so much depended on the life and health of a President, that he should not be permitted to risk needlessly.

"WE ARE VERY HAPPY," SAYS MRS. MCKINLEY.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 9.—"We trust in God, and believe Mr. McKinley is going to recover speedily. I know that he has the best medical attendance that can be obtained, and I am perfectly satisfied that these doctors are handling the case splendidly. It is a great pleasure to know the deep interest and sympathy felt by the American people. The case is progressing so favorably that we are very happy."

Mrs. McKinley, the wife of the President, said this to-day at the Milburn house just after the 4 o'clock bulletin of the physicians was issued. This bulletin was the strongest and most favorable that has been put forward by the physicians since the President was shot on Friday afternoon. The seventy-two hours which were the limit they had fixed for the development of peritonitis had almost expired, and their confidence has wonderfully encouraged the sweet-faced wife of the President.

SENTIMENT IS GROWING.

Methodist Clergymen Now Urge the Stamping Out of Anarchy.

New York, Sept. 9.—The Methodist ministers of this city at their meeting to-day adopted a resolution which, after expressing their sympathy with the President and Mrs. McKinley, concluded as follows: "We take occasion also to express our conviction that it is high time that anarchy should be stamped out by the strong arm of the concurrent law of nations."

Immediately after the opening of the public schools in the various boroughs of this city to-day the letter from the Board of Education requesting each school principal to have appropriate reference made to the attempted assassination of President McKinley was read to the pupils and prayers were said for the speedy recovery of the President.

VOICE THEIR INDIGNATION.

Warrenton Citizens Adopt Resolutions.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Warrenton, Mo., Sept. 9.—At a public meeting of the citizens of Warrenton in response to a call from Mayor F. J. Talter resolutions were adopted condemning the attempted assassination of President McKinley and calling upon Congress to enact a law that will prohibit anarchists from coming to this country.

The resolutions were signed by C. E. Peers, Professor J. H. Frick, John H. Koelling, Thomas J. Harris, Larkin Carter, Doctor A. W. Eberling and Doctor F. J. Talter.

Speeches voting the above sentiments were made by Judge C. E. Peers; Professor Voshell, J. B. Barber, the Reverend Penwell and W. L. Morrey, prominent Democrats and Republicans.

Faculty of University of Missouri Adopt Resolutions.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Columbia, Mo., Sept. 9.—The faculty of the University of Missouri met in executive session this afternoon and passed the following resolution in regard to the attempted assassination of President McKinley:

"The faculty of the University of Missouri, in general assembly on the opening of the session of 1901, desire to unite with all good citizens of the Republic in expressing sorrow and indignation at the blow to our country in the attempted assassination of the President of the United States and also to express our sympathy with the President and his family and a sincere hope for his speedy recovery."

BETTER PROTECTION NEEDED.

Former Speaker Reed's Views of Large Crowds.

Kingston, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Judge A. T. Clearwater of this city, just returned from San Harbor, was with ex-Speaker Thomas B. Reed when Mr. Reed heard the news of the attempt to kill President McKinley.

Mr. Reed expressed the warmest hope that the injuries were less serious than reported, and for the President's speedy recovery. He said the time had arrived to protect Presidents from close contact with large crowds. It was not a question of courage. All Presidents were courageous, but their duty was to be protected. The position was so exalted and important, so much depended on the life and health of a President, that he should not be permitted to risk needlessly.
